Set to become one of Sydney's tallest residential towers, Greenland Centre will reach new heights of luxury and convenience in residential living.

Located at 117 Bathurst Street, in the heart of the Sydney CBD, the BVN and Woods Bagot designed tower will feature 479 residences over 67 storeys. Rising to 235 metres above the ground, Greenland Centre's upper levels will offer unrivalled panoramic views encompassing the CBD, Blue Mountains, Hyde Park and Sydney Harbour. The building's revolutionary 'Sydney Balconies' have been designed to provide true indoor-outdoor connections all year-round and will offer unrivalled views and protection from the elements.

Inside, elegant living spaces and exceptional detailing will be the hallmark of the cosmopolitan residences, which will
